ANNOUNCEMENTS:
Coming Up at Highlands Lutheran Church

Highlands Lutheran Potluck!

Saturday, September 22, 5-9pm

Let's get together with Pastor Asher to get to know new, old, and potential members! Bring a dish to share! Also please bring a lawn chair if you have one!
Robin Lockwood Young's House:

Note from Robin: "This is a weather permitting event - If there is inclement weather, we'll have to postpone due to the size of the gathering. So pray for nice weather."

Blessing of the Animals & Children's Service*

Harvest Festival & Chili Cook-off Saturday, October 6th, 11am-2pm

Join us for the 3rd Annual Harvest Festival and inaugural Chili Cook-off at Highlands Lutheran. Food, live music, pumpkin patch, shopping, and tons of activities for the kids. Bring your friends and family!

Chili entries are being accepted until September 23rd. Challenge a friend to see who has the best! Contact Robin Lockwood for details and to enter.

Want to volunteer for this event? Contact Maren Markus

The Bookies will meet on Friday, September 28th at 5:30pm at Ray LeJeune's home. We will watch a short documentary. Please bring food to go with green chili!

Sunglasses found on seat of back pew over a week ago – they are in the main office.

HELLO HIGHLANDS!

Hello Highlands is a new section of the Highlands Happenings where achievements big and small can be recognized and specific needs such as baby sitting help can be solicited.

Custom Pet Portraits for sale! If you are interested in an original pet portrait drawing/painting of your furry companion or as a gift for a fellow animal fan, contact Tara McConnell Pricing varies according to size and number of animals.

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME and RESOURCES:

Thank you to all for making Pastor Asher's Installation and celebration so wonderful.

In September the Bienvenidos Food Bank is collecting ramen and boxed mac-n-cheese.

In October the food bank will be collecting hearty canned and dry soups.

Thank you.

MAY CHRIST'S LOVE, GRACE and COMPASSION BE WITH YOU ALWAYS!
