ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Coming Up at Highlands Lutheran Church

Bookies!

Bookies next month will be at Martin and Wanda Brotherton's house. We will be reading The Curious Case of Arthur Pepper by Phaedra Patrick. Both Denver Public Library and Jeffco Library have available copies. Bring food to share. Bookies starts at 5.30.

Looking to step up your stewardship game? Consider getting active in our HLC Council! Here are ways you can get involved:

- Attend a meeting. Council meetings are open to the congregation. Unless otherwise noted, Council meetings take place in the Church Library at 6:00p on the 2nd Monday of the month. We welcome your input! (NOTE: Due to schedule conflicts, the November meeting has been moved to Thursday, November 8)
- Volunteer for a subcommittee. Not ready to become a full-blown Council member? Consider helping with some of our many projects.
- Become a Council member. Council is made up of four officers plus additional voting members of the congregation. We could use some more voting members to lighten the load on the Council officers.
- Consider being a Council officer. Council members nominate and vote on the officer positions. In the coming year, we need someone to take over Secretary duties. If you are a good note-taker, this is a great opportunity for you!

If you have any questions about what it means to be a Council member, or want to be considered for the 2019 Council slate, please contact: Nicole Jobin, Carrie Olgeirson, or Wendy Haselgren (you are also welcome to chat up Dennis Lindvedt, Maren Markus, Mark Mizelle, Lorraine Rumpeltes, or Chris Stopps).
